

Multiple Choice

1. The life expectancy at birth in Sierra Leone is about 38 years. What can you infer about the population of Sierra Leone?

- A. About half of adults in Sierra Leone die in their 30s or 40s.
- B. Few 50-year-olds in Sierra Leone will survive to their 60th birthdays.
- C. There are a lot of infant and child deaths in Sierra Leone.

Ans: C

Page: 22

2. Which term is used to describe the absence or presence of illness or disease?

- A. Demography
- B. Morbidity
- C. Mortality
- D. Vitality

Ans: B

Page: 23

3. Which term is best used to describe new cases of disease occurring in a population?

- A. DALY
- B. Incidence
- C. Mortality rate
- D. Prevalence

Ans: B

Page: 24

4. Which term is best used to describe the proportion of people in a population who have particular disease?

- A. DALY
- B. Incidence
- C. Mortality rate
- D. Prevalence

Ans: D

Page: 24

5. According to the Global Burden of Disease classification scheme, which of the following conditions is not a noncommunicable disease (NCD)?

- A. Hypertension
- B. Lung cancer
- C. Osteoporosis
- D. Poisoning

Ans: D

Page: 32

6. According to the Global Burden of Disease classification scheme, which of the following conditions is not a noncommunicable disease (NCD)?

- A. Asthma
- B. Diabetes
- C. Muscular dystrophy
- D. Vitamin A deficiency

Ans: D

Page: 32

8. According to the Global Burden of Disease classification scheme, which of the following conditions is not a neuropsychiatric disorder?

- A. Autism
- B. Lupus
- C. Migraines
- D. Schizophrenia

Ans: B

Page: 35

9. According to the Global Burden of Disease classification scheme, which of the following conditions is not a neuropsychiatric disorder?

- A. Bipolar disorder
- B. Cerebral palsy
- C. Congestive heart failure

D. Parkinson's disease

Ans: C
Page: 35

9. Which of the following would typically be classified as an intentional injury?

- A. Burn
- B. Drowning
- C. Poisoning
- D. Terrorist act

Ans: D
Page: 36

10. Which of the following statements about injuries is true?

- A. High-income people tend to have a higher risk of injury than low-income people
- B. Most injuries are intentional
- C. Road traffic accidents are the most common cause of unintentional injury death worldwide
- D. War is a more common cause of death worldwide than suicide

Ans: C
Page: 36